Superintendent of Schools

Left to Right, Standing: Mr. Landry, Dr. Kelleher, Mr. Foley. Sitting: Miss Gibbons, Mr. Lowe, Mr. Farrow, Mr. Currier, Mrs. Smith.

School Committee

Mr. J. Robert Vail
Principal

To the Class of 1973:

Yearbook Day is, indeed, a memorable day. The cumulation of a year's work by the editors and staff; the distribution of books and seeing ourselves in print — all this certainly is memorable.

But, perhaps more memorable and noteworthy is the knowledge on the part of the staff and the advisor that the long road has finally come to an end. Each class, in succession, tries to "out do" all the yearbooks which have gone before, and the Class of 1973 is no exception. Pride in an accomplishment well done can certainly be yours on Yearbook Day.

Pride, too, can be had by the entire Class in the knowledge that your goal of a high school education is almost attained. Commencement — now so near — literally means the beginning. As you begin your new careers — whether in further education, industry or whatever — we hope that you will look back favorably upon your high school days as ones which have been most meaningful and truly educational in all respects.

A parting wish: whenever the path seems especially rough, we hope that you will recall the slogan of the optimist:

"As you ramble on through Life, Brother,
Whatever be your goal;
Keep your eye upon the doughnut,
And not upon the hole!"

Good luck, God speed, and Goodbye.

I think that I shall never see a waste quite like our S.A.T.
An S.A.T. is just a test
To see which students guess the best
With paragraphs of boring lore
Penned before the Civil War.
I think erosion is to rocks and blacken in the proper box.
For non-computer types like me such nonsense is an S.A.T.
Poems are changed by fools like me,
But God would blow his S.A.T.

"And leave the driving to us."

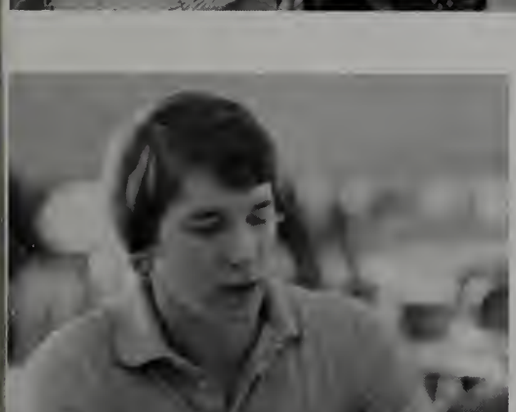
"Oh no, it's the news broadcast again."

"It's more fun with boys."



"How do we do the next step?"

"Forgot my purse."

"And now for my next bird call . . ."

"I just polished my teeth."

"Should we tell him the season is over?"

"Follow me boys"

Old friends,
old friends,
sat on their park bench
like bookends.
A newspaper blown through the grass falls on the round toes of the high shoes
of the old friends.

Old friends,
winter companions,
the old men
lost in their overcoats, waiting for the sunset.
The sounds of the city,
sitting through trees, settle like dust
on the shoulders
of the old friends

Can you imagine us
years from today,
sharing a park bench quietly?
How terribly strange to be seventy.

Old friends,
memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fear . . .
